

PowerObjects Named to the 2010 President's Club for Microsoft Dynamics

Minneapolis company makes President's club for the second year with their leading work in Dynamics CRM.

Minneapolis – July 27, 2010 – Microsoft Dynamics® announced that PowerObjects, a leader in Microsoft Dynamics CRM (Customer Relationship Management) solutions, has been named to the company's 2010 President's Club. The award was presented to the top five percent of Microsoft value-added resellers in the United States at the Worldwide Partner Conference in Washington, D.C. earlier this month.

"We're excited to recognize PowerObjects as a leader in the Microsoft Dynamics partner community for promoting and delivering solutions that drive customer success," said Doug Kennedy, vice president of Microsoft Dynamics Partners. "By providing the highest level of sales and innovation, customers can have absolute assurance they are dealing with the 'best of the best' when working with PowerObjects."

"Being named to The President's Club by Microsoft is a big honor for PowerObjects. We are proud of this accomplishment and believe it validates the hard work of our team in delivering top CRM solutions and services to our customers," said Jim Sheehan, COO at PowerObjects. "Through the implementation of Microsoft Dynamics CRM, our clients have streamlined business processes, managed organizational growth, and benefited from dramatic cost savings. We are poised for even greater growth in the coming year."

PowerObjects has been a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner for the past 4 years and was recently honored by Microsoft as the North Central Region Area Partner Award Winner for Microsoft Dynamics CRM.
